Concerning Soil Tillage

After the ground is plowed, it should be disced and harrowed until all lumps are finely pulverized. This is because the delicate plant roots cannot penetrate hard lumps and are, therefore, deprived of much plant food. Tillage increases the availability of plant food elements by changing the arrangements of soil particles and bringing together those that have not before been in contact. It also changes the relation of the soil with air, water, salts and acids in the soil, making available plant food that would otherwise remain dormant.

W. R. NELSON, NEWSPAPER GENIUS.

"Thirty," the newspaper symbol for "this is the end," has been ticked on the life of W. R. Nelson, newspaper publisher of Kansas City, Mo. There was not another publisher of his generation that attained single-handed, it may be said, the success in reputation and prosperity won by this man. He made his newspapers and he owned them, made them in a city nationally noted as a journalistic hurrying ground and acquiring them where competitors lost them. The most brilliant writers in the country, the influence of the biggest politicians, the prestige of a majority party, the resources of wealth and interests, were thrown into competition against him, yet, working alone, with scant means, at the beginning, he did not succumb to rivalry. To the contrary he rose steadily triumphant over it. His greatest satisfaction of all must have been to become finally the owner of the very paper upon which the best talent of the country and veritably millions of dollars were applied in an effort to beat him out, and eventually to establish for that paper a field in which it was both reputable and prosperous. Why did he succeed alone, where others in company failed—was it because his was an all-conquering genius on his part, or a total inadequacy in his competitors? Neither we think. It was just because W. R. Nelson was honest and had good, sound horse sense. With him newspaper making was a business, a business that had to be conducted along legitimate and sincere lines. His effort was to build up his paper, his rival publishers had other axes to grind, their purpose was to promote other interests and succeed with other things rather than with the publishing business. The confidence of the people was secured by Nelson's Star because they realized he wanted to build it up by giving them the news fairly and squarely and he had no purpose to exploit them to his own incidental gain away from the paper. A most plain and simple platform, but where there is one W. R. Nelson to appreciate, and act upon it there are a thousand would-be rivals who do not. —Portsmouth Times.

EATING YOUR CAKE—

One reason why professional politicians fail to command public respect for long periods of time, is because most of them refuse to learn the simplest rules of life. When the foundations of business were shaken by the outbreak of war last summer, official Washington bade us have courage because of the enormous wheat crop, which would sell for fancy prices in Europe.

That was a sound prediction. Wheat touched $1.37 in February. This was an increase of about 70 per cent in the normal price of wheat at the farm. But when the price of bread went from 5 cents to 6 cents, a 20 per cent increase, the same officials wanted to put the bakers in prison.

—And Having It

INVESTMENT and INDUSTRY knows only one thing about the baking business; namely, a very old rule that, "You can not eat your cake and have it." Washington knows nothing at all about the baking business, except that it wants all the advantages that go with high-priced wheat, combined with all that go with low priced bread. This is "eating and having" with a vengeance.

Now it is proposed to place an embargo on wheat. Undoubtedly this would reduce prices temporarily. But high prices have inspired the American farmer to plant the greatest acreage of winter wheat in all history. If an embargo cuts the price in half, no spring acreage will be planted and some of winter acreage will be plowed under to make room for more profitable crops. By September, prices would be just as high; we would have less wheat, and we would have no comfortable millions coming to us from abroad. These are simple rules but it is probably expecting too much to hope that Congress will ever learn them.

TOO GOOD TO BE TRUE.

Of the two ways of overcoming a government deficit, the more acceptable to those directly responsible for the deficit and for its correction is to raise more revenue through increased taxation. The more desirable alternative of cutting down expenses to bring them within the revenues is seldom chosen. There is cause for satisfaction, therefore, in the fact that the administration in dealing with the deficit in the Federal government's accounts for this fiscal year to date—it amounts to $80,475,000—is giving some thought to cutting down outgo. There is no doubt that it could be done that way without the country suffering in the least. —The Annalist.

GREATNESS OF THE MIND.

The greatest of all wealth producers is mind. It might be classed as labor, but it is not exactly labor; it is not work; it is the power to see, to invent, to co-ordinate. A man can sit on his shoulder blades and smoke a cigar, and, if his think works operate sufficiently, add more wealth to the country than 10,000 hand workers. —Dr. Frank Crane.

Why not call him Atlas Pomeroy? The Ohio Senator seems to imagine he's carrying an awful load.

DON'T WAIT.

Why are you waiting?

You have somewhere in the back of your head the idea that some day you are going to do something that will make your friends regard you with envy and admiration.

In your imagination you can hear them saying they never supposed you had it in you.

Your breast often swells with pride as you think of yourself honored and applauded after you have done the great thing.

You feel sure that you will be able to arise to the occasion when it presents itself.

But you are waiting.

You may realize that occasions seldom present themselves.

Perhaps it has occurred to you that the man who arises to an occasion must go out and find it.

Still you are waiting. Tomorrow, next week, next year you intend to seek your occasion.

Why are you waiting?

Last year you were waiting for this year; last week you were waiting for this week; yesterday you were waiting for today.

Time's up. Cease waiting. The great thing will never be accomplished if you keep putting it off.

Shape your actions to the present. Do the great thing now—at least make a beginning.

Every day that you put it off is a day less of satisfaction and success and honor for you.

Don't wait! —Samuel Ellsworth Kiser.

WEALTH ENOUGH FOR ALL.

Were I to lay down a formula by which men may attain unto all that they desire, I would have them banish the specters of hatred, jealousy and fear, which are evoked by the false supposition that there is just so much riches in the world and that the problem for each of us is how to get the greatest share of these away from our fellow beings. I would have men understand that there is no division of riches among humanity, but that all may be rich without impoverishing the others. Just as one or a multitude may bask in the sunlight, or gaze at the beauty of the heavens without depriving any others from basking in the same sunlight or being enraptured by the same beauty, so, we need learn, the possession of great wealth by one does not deprive any other of equally great wealth—but all of us, with suitable effort, may be richer in whatever is good for mankind to have.—W. B. Harrison, Secretary, in an address before the Oklahoma State Bankers' Association.

FAR FROM "PSYCHOLOGICAL."

How keenly the largest restaurant company in the world feels the consequences of free trade depression and diminished producing power is shown in that the Childs Company, which operates 60 eating houses in New York City, and has similar establishments in 26 other cities, has been compelled to pass the dividend on its common stock for the quarter ended February, 1915. The capital stock of this company is $9,000,000, and until free trade depression set in it had not failed to pay handsome dividends since the date of its organization. Low-down stomachs don't seem to know that our hard times are "only psychological," "merely a state of mind." They are taking the matter seriously. To them the question of food for the body is a serious one; not at all "psychological," but intensely material.

SOME ONE IS RESPONSIBLE.

The theory is entertained by some that bigness in business just comes of itself—that size is developed blindly and capriciously. But inquiry generally reveals the fact that there is a man somewhere on the premises—that the growth is the consequence of hard work and great directing ability.—New York Tribune.

Green Old Age.

"Say, ma!"

"What's green old age?"
"When a man who is bald and wrinkled and tottering marries a young woman who wouldn't look at him a second time if he didn't have lots of money," the lady replied, casting a stealthy glance at her husband, who was busy reading the stock quotations, "it may be said that he has lived to a green old age."

LETTER

Said To Have Been Written By Jesus and Story of Its Preservation To Date

The following is sent in by a Courier reader, with a request to us that it be printed. Far be it from us to do any thing which may add to our own or any other person's ill fortunes and so that both of us may view the future with equanimity, the clipping is given space as requested. The clipping, just as we received it, reads as follows:

The original letter, said to have been written by Christ, was found in the early days of Christianity by a child.

There is a promise that whoever may have a copy of this letter in their possession will prosper and be followed by good fortune, if they publish it, but if they do not heed the command, bad luck and misfortune will follow them, until it is made public.

From the hands of the child who found it, the letter is said to have passed into the possession of a convert to the Christian faith. For some reason this convert failed to have the letter published. He kept it, however, as a sacred memento of Christ and it passed on to his eldest son, and on down through many generations, but was never published.

The tradition being that when it finally was given publicity it had been in one family for more than a thousand years.

During all this period of time, the story goes, the family suffered repeated and continuous misfortune.

Discouraged members of the family migrated to countries other than where the letter was found, which was evident by Palestine, and finally one of them came to America, bringing the fateful letter with him.

The family having possession of it settled in Virginia, still keeping the fact of the letter a secret.

Descendants of the family moved farther south, still followed by misfortune.

Finally, as the last member of the family lay on her death bed she called to a neighbor woman named Thompson and gave the letter to her, relating its history.

The Thompson woman's attempts to have it published were rewarded when it appeared in the Rome (Ga.) Tribune, October 31, 1891. From there it was reprinted in the Dalton (Ga.) Citizen, and Mrs. Fannie Wortman of Marion Ind., clipped it from the paper, keeping it in her possession for many years. Recently Mrs. Wortman had it republished in a Marion paper, stating that during the time she had retained the letter in her possession without having it published, or attempting to, she had a series of bad luck which she attributes to her failure to secure publicity for the letter.

It is my prayer that this be published. Here is the letter:

"Whoever work on the Sabbath day shall be cursed. I command you to go to church and keep holy the Lord's Day without any manner of work. You shall not idle or mispend your time in hedonizing yourselves in superfluities of costly apparel and vain dressing, for I have ordered it a day of rest. I will have that day kept holy that your sins may be forgiven you.

"You will not break my commandments, but observe and keep them, they being written by my hand and spoken from my mouth.

"You will not only go to church yourself, but also your manservant and maid-servant. Observe my words and learn my commandments. You shall touch your work every Saturday at 6 o'clock in the afternoon, at which hour the preparation for the Sabbath be given. I advise you to fast five Fridays in the year, beginning with Good Friday and continuing the Fridays following, in remembrance of the five blood wounds I received for you and man kind.

"You shall love one another, and cause them that are not baptized to come to church and receive the Holy Sacrament—that is to say, baptism, and then the supper of the Lord, and in so doing I will give you long life and many blessings. Your land shall be replenished and bring forth abundance, and I will comfort you in the greatest temptation, and surely he that doeth to the contrary shall be cursed.

"I will also send hardness of heart on them, and especially on hardened and impenitent unbelievers. He that hath given to the poor shall find it profitable.

Sabbath day injunction:

"Remember to keep holy the Sabbath day. For the seventh day I have taken as a resting day to myself.

"And he that hath a copy of this letter from my own mouth, and keep it, without publishing it to others, shall not prosper, but he that publish it to others shall be blessed by me, and if their sins be as many as the stars at night, and if they truly believe they shall be pardoned, and they that believe not this writing and my commandments will have my plague upon you and you will be consumed with your children, goods, cattle and all other worldly enjoyments that I have given you. Do but once think of what I have suffered for you; if you do, it will be well for you in this world and in the world which is to come.

Whoever shall have a copy of this letter and keep it in their home, nothing shall hurt them, neither pestilence, lightning, nor thunder, and if man be in birth and put her

Me, she shall be delivered of her child. You shall have no more news of Me except through the Holy Scriptures, until the day of judgment. All goodness and prosperity shall be in the house where a copy of this letter shall be found. "Finished."

SERVICE BEING RUINED

Under Postmaster General Burleson's Guidance, Langley Says.

Washington.—Representative Langley of Kentucky, made the charge that the Postoffice Department, as administered by Postmaster General Burleson, "is causing the ruin of the mail service in the Tenth Kentucky district, which he represents in Congress.

"The service is being curtailed, restricted, handicapped and demoralized to a most amazing degree," Langley said. "During the last few weeks I have received numerous notices from the Postoffice Department that certain postoffices in my district would be dropped unless I furnished reasons with. In two weeks why they should be continued. The excuse given is that the business done at these offices does not justify their continuance. In other words, the Democratic party through the Underwood tariff and its inefficient administration has crippled business to such an extent that many postoffices are no longer deemed necessary. I object to their discontinuance, because the Republicans will be in power after March 4, 1917, and business will revive. Anyway, I never before heard of an administration's sins in creating hard times being pleaded as a reason for crippling the postal service.

"Many instances of how the postal service is going to put in my district might be cited. For example, the administration has abolished the star route between McKee and Drip Rock, which has been in operation for 30 years, and which is one of the most important star routes in my district. As a result 200 people are without mail for the first time in 30 years."

ANNIVERSARY OF FAMOUS MURDER.

San Francisco, Cal., April 3.—Veterans of the San Francisco police force recalled today as the twentieth anniversary of the "belly" or Durrant murder, one of the most celebrated crimes in the history of this city. It was on April 3, 1895, that Blanche Lamond, a girl of 20, was seen to enter Emanuel Baptist church in company with Theodore Durrant, a young medical student and a leader in the work of the church. Persons who entered the church later found the dead body of Miss Lamond in the belly of the church, and the body of another girl, Minnie Williams, in the study of the pastor. Durrant was tried for the murder of the girl and convicted on November 1, 1895. Stronous efforts were made to save him from the gallows and he was sentenced to death four times before he was finally hanged at San Quentin on January 7, 1898.

A DAILY LESSON IN HISTORY

One Hundred Years Ago Today.

1815—The allies commenced active preparations for a campaign of the war with Napoleon. Wellington was selected as commander in chief of the army in Flanders, consisting of about 75,000 men, mostly British and Dutch. A Prussian army of about 80,000 men, under General Blücher, was formed to act in concert with Wellington.

Seventy-five Years Ago Today.

1890—An Order in Council was issued by the British government, and laid before Parliament on the 14th, which amounted to virtual declaration of war against China. (Beginning the so-called Opium War, resulting from the action of the Chinese government in permitting the importation of opium which was largely cultivated in British India, and was imported into China by English merchants.)

Fifty Years Ago Today.

1865—A Federal force under General Weitzel took possession of Richmond, which had been evacuated by the Confederates on the preceding day.

Twenty-five Years Ago Today.

1890—The five republics of Central America were completing plans to unite under one President, with a cabinet of five members and a diet of fifteen.

JOHNSON AND WILLARD READY.

Facts About the Championship Fight.

Contestants—Jack Johnson, title holder, and Jess Willard, challenger. Place and Time—Stadium arena, Havana, Cuba, noon, Monday, April 3. Title At Stake—World's heavy weight championship. Length of Fight—Forty-five rounds, in 24-foot ring. Rules—Marquis of Queensberry. Financial End—Johnson, $30,000 guarantee; Willard, percentage of net profits. Referee—Jack Welsh of San Francisco.

Havana, Cuba, April 3.—The Cuban capital is intensely excited over the big fight about to take place here between Jack Johnson and Jess Willard for the championship of the world. Though pugilism is comparatively a new sport so far as Havana is concerned, it is safe to assert that nowhere has a championship battle ever aroused more public interest than has been stirred up in this city by the Johnson-Willard contest. Today it is the sole topic of conversation on the streets, in restaurants, clubs and homes, and for the nonce everything else of a public nature seems to have been forgotten.

While the white challenger undoubtedly has the larger number of well-wishers, it is a different thing when it comes to betting money. Johnson continues a favorite at 2 to 1. At these odds those that fancy the chances of the champion are able to place their money without much difficulty.

Because of the uncertainty as to the result of the big battle, there is unbridled interest manifested all over the world. Will it be Johnson or Willard? The question is asked in America, Canada, Australia, France, England and probably in the trenches in Flanders. The answer will be forthcoming not sooner than the late afternoon of Monday next, when 50,000 or more persons will see the battle decided at the race track on the outskirts of Havana.

WOMEN TO VOTE IN HELENA.

Helena, Mont., April 3.—The municipal election here Monday will afford the women of Helena the first opportunity to exercise their new-acquired right of suffrage. Aside from this, the election promises to attract more than ordinary interest, for in addition to electing a board of aldermen, the voters will decide upon the acceptance or rejection of a proposed to adopt the commission plan of government.

A DIME A DAY

Save That Much and in Twenty Years You Will Have $1,206.

(New York American.)

How much, think you, would you have in 20 years did you save a dime a day and allow 5 per cent interest to accumulate on it?

Over $1,200!

The little dime, the smallest of all our coins, can work wonders if tucked away, one each day.

A dime a day will insure a lad of 15 for $2,100, a youth of 21 for $3,860 and a man of 35 for $13,000, a life insurance premium computed for me yesterday. This premium would carry the usual participating privileges, including a refund for the reduction of future premiums or an increase in the amount of insurance.

A dime a day, with 5 per cent interest compounded annually, would buy two "billion bonds" of the highest grade at the end of five years.

A dime a day, on the same terms, if saved for your boy or girl from birth, would give you over $500 to send the child to boarding school when 11 years old or over $1,000 to start it at college at 18. At 21 the child's bank book would show $1,300 to its credit.

To illustrate vividly how "money makes money," the following table of our dime a day saved is worth presenting:

How a Dime a Day Saved and Invested Grows.

2d year ..... 74.82	5 1/2 %

8th year ..... 348.51	14.85 %
9th year ..... 402.31	17.42 %
10th year ..... 459.05	20.12 %

A dime a day would buy a 25-cent gift for 146 poor children at Christmas.

A dime a day would pay your fare, second-class, to Europe and back in three years.

A dime a day would start you on the road to building a house through a savings and loan association.

A dime a day would buy you in three years a share of Pennsylvania Railroad stock paying six per cent a year, or a share of United States Steel preferred stock paying 7 per cent per year.

A dime a day, at 5 per cent interest, would bring you $20 a year interest in 10 years, $40 a year in 16 years and $60 a year in 21 years.

GERM LESSONS ON FILM

Dr. Goldwater's Anti-Fumigation Theory Will Be Shown in Movies.

The contention that fumigation does not prevent the spread of disease, made by Dr. S. S. Goldwater, health commissioner of New York, when he ordered the discontinuance of formaldehyde fumigation in every borough except Brooklyn, is supported by a health film just completed by the Thomas A. Edison Company. The film is to be used soon to illustrate public lectures on questions of health and sanitation, particularly for housewives and domestics.

The film contrasts the inefficient and inefficient methods of disinfection, and according to its sponsors, further shows the "fallacy of fumigation and why fumigation fails."

One of the physicians who helped to formulate the scenario said that Dr. Goldwater's method of fumigation was a "good one."

But he added that the Commissioner of Health should substitute an efficient method instead of "abandoning disinfectants entirely."

Disinfection and fumigation are of little efficacy in removing "germs left by the ravages of a contagious disease," according to Dr. Linsey R. Wilkins, deputy state commissioner of health, who so told the New York State Osteopathic Society. He said soap and water and plenty of sunlight did far more good than all the disinfectants and fumigations.

The Central League will not have big league umpires this season, but implies with big league schooling. Said schooling will be furnished by Billy Evans, the American League arbiter, in a course of lectures to the Central umpires.

GOSSIP FROM THE NATIONAL CAPITAL.

Washington, April 3.—It is expected that some important decisions may be handed down by the Supreme Court when the highest tribunal convenes Monday after the usual Easter recess.

Many cases of great public importance are before the court, but of all of these it is probable that more interest is taken in a general way in the appeal in the case of Leo Frank than in any most any other case that has been argued before the court in the past few months. Whether a decision will be rendered in the case of the young Atlanta convicted of the murder of little Mary Phagan, when the court convenes Monday, of course is not known, but it is generally believed that the decision will be forthcoming at an early date. If the Supreme Court refuses to grant Frank's appeal for a writ of habeas corpus, then a new date will be fixed for the execution of the death sentence on Frank. Then there will be no hope left except an appeal to the Governor of Georgia for clemency.

The superintendent of public buildings and grounds is evidently of the opinion that the President will not get away from Washington this summer for a long vacation, as he is making a start to give the White House a much-needed coat of paint. It has been the custom in past years to repaint the White House every year.

The three government hospitals for the treatment of tuberculosis will be consolidated soon, if plans now being considered by the army and navy medical officers and the officials of the public health service are carried out.

The public health service is located at Fort Stanton, N. M., and the hospital of the Navy Department is situated at Las Animas, Col. It has been suggested that these two institutions might be brought together at one of the other places and conducted as one hospital. It is claimed that there would be economic advantages of administration, and there would be no interference with advantages by such consolidation.

This was Boy Scout tag day in the national capital, when citizens were asked to contribute funds with which to defray the expenses of local scout organizations during the next year.

Once each year the public is asked to contribute toward the support of the local scout movement by purchasing tags on Boy Scout tag day. This year a greater number of scouts participated in the selling of the tags, and the scout officials are hopeful that when the returns are all in the amount raised will be greater than in any previous years.

Observation in a fitting manner of the fiftieth anniversary of the surrender at Appomattox and the restoration of peace between the states is suggested by Lieut. George C. Rounds of Massachusetts, Va., president of the United States Veterans Signal Corps Association. Lieut. Rounds has taken the matter up with Representative Flood of Virginia and with others interested in preserving the historical associations of Appomattox, all of those to whom the matter has been broached having expressed willingness to co-operate in holding suitable ceremonies on the site of the closing struggle and final surrender which marked the close of the war between the states.

BASEBALL GOSSIP.

Manager Herzog says he will play Catcher Ivy Wingo in the outfield and allow Dooin and Clark to attend to the backstopping for the Reds.

Brooklyn followers of the Federal League declare that Manager Lee Meigs of the Tip Tops will be the sensation of the Fed circuit this year.

Bobby Roth, who played in the outfield for the Kansas City A. A. team last year, is being given a trial at third base for the Chicago White Sox.

Manager Birmingham of the Cleveland Indians is willing to sign Red Murray in case the red-top outfielder is given the gate by the Ginals.

With Cobb and Crawford going great guns, Detroit fans contend the Tigers will be there if Coveleskie, Daus and Dulac will oblige by performing like regular pitchers.

First base seems to be the cause for the departure of Fred Clarke's nanny. The Pirates boss has been trying out Johnson, Scheeren and the veteran Joins Wagner at the initial cushion.

The Chicago Feels, the best advertised ball team in Chicago last season, has started its 1915 publicity campaign by announcing that Jimmy Smith, a manager, has been out Manager Joe Tinker for the job at short.

Boston fans are figuring on all world's series games being played in the Hub next fall. Or in other words, the Red Sox will cop the American League pennant and the Braves will repeat their 1914 performance in the National League.

"THE CONQUERING KING"

Five Musical Program To Be Rendered Next Sunday Evening At Third Street M. E. Church.

Next Sunday, Easter, is expected to be the biggest of all days at the Third Street M. E. church. Instead of the usual preaching services at night, the Easter Resurrection story will be told in song. The regular choir, assisted by several additional singers and musicians, including Mr. D. A. Ellis with trombone, Messrs. Nannan and Richardson with cornets, and J. Robert Curry with piano, will render the sacred Easter cantata entitled "The Conquering King." This is one of the best of the famous Lorenz cantatas. The music is by Ira B. Wilson, one of the leading composers of music of this character. The service will begin at 7:30 in the evening. The program is as follows:

Processional—"Hail the Day That Sees Him Rise."

PART ONE.

Introduction.
Chorus—"Hail the Day That Sees Him Rise."

Quartet for Women's Voices—"Zion's Daughter, Weep No more."

Bass Solo, Alto Solo and Chorus—"Surely He Hath Borne Our Griefs."

Duet for Soprano and Alto—"When I Survey the Wondrous Cross."

Contralto Solo—"He Giveth Sleep."

PART TWO.

Bass Solo, Soprano Solo and Chorus—"Why Weepst Thou?"

Tenor Solo, Tenor and Soprano Duet and Chorus—"Christ Is Risen."

Baritone Solo and Chorus—"How Calm and Beautiful."

Chorus—"Lift Up Your Heads."

Final Chorus—"Rejoice, the Lord Is King."

There will be 17 voices in the choruses. The following will be heard in solos, duets and quartets: Misses Carrie and Lillian Mose, Phoebe Huron, Gertrude Jones, Helen Nannan, Mrs. G. C. Mance, and Messrs. Harry Clark, Reese Ellis, Evans Hill and Frank Nash.

This service should mark a fine beginning to the revival services which will follow next week. The choir, with many additional voices, will make the music a success during the meetings. Every one is invited to hear the cantata and the revival services.

SEVERE PUNISHMENT

Of Mrs. Chappell, of Five Years' Standing, Relieved by Cardui.

Mrs. Chappell, N. C.—Mrs. Sarah M. Chappell of this town, says: "I suffered for five years with womanly troubles, also stomach troubles, and my punishment was more than any one could tell."

I tried most every kind of medicine, but none did me any good.

I read one day about Cardui, the woman's tonic, and I decided to try it. I had not taken but about six bottles until I was almost cured. It did me more good than all the other medicines I had tried, put together.

My friends began asking me why I looked so well, and I told them about Cardui. Several are now taking it."

Do you, lady reader, suffer from any of the ailments due to womanly trouble, such as headache, backache, sideache, sleeplessness, and that everlastingly tired feeling?

If so, let us urge you to give Cardui a trial. We feel confident it will help you, just as it has a million other women in the past half century.

Begin taking Cardui to-day. You won't regret it. All druggists.

A WORD WITH WOMEN

Valuable Advice for Maysville Readers.

Many a woman endures with noble patience the daily misery of backache, pain about the hips, blue, nervous spells, dizziness and urinary disorders, hopeless of relief because she doesn't know what is the matter.

It is not true that every pain in the back or hips is trouble "peculiar to the sex." Often when the kidneys get congested and inflamed, such aches and pains follow.

You can tell it is kidney trouble if the secretions are dark colored, contain sediment; the passages are too frequent or scanty. Then help the weakened kidneys. Don't expect them to get well alone.

Doan's Kidney Pills have won the praise of thousands of women. They are endorsed at home—Read this Maysville woman's convincing statement:

Mrs. Dora McLeod, Maysville, Ky., says: "I had been feeling poorly for some time, before I knew that my kidneys were at fault. I was nervous and dizzy and my back and head ached. I rested poorly and mornings I was all tired out. I read in a local paper how a neighbor had been cured of kidney trouble by Doan's Kidney Pills. I used them and before long I was a great deal better. I was able to sleep well and they improved my health."

Price 50c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. McLeod had. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y.

The Metcalfe Art League in Mrs.
Ball's eighth grade room, have voted to expend their money for a bookcase and books to be dedicated to the memory of Miss Ella B. Metcalfe. Miss Metcalfe organized an art league while she was teaching. Last year the art league decided to style itself "The Metcalfe Art League." As Miss Metcalfe had many friends and former pupils who are now living in the city, the art league feels that they should give all those the opportunity of subscribing to this fund who are desirous of leaving a memorial to the honor of Miss Metcalfe's efficient service. The league will make its purchases about May 1, so all those wishing to augment this fund will half of the members, and several guests, were present. Dr. A. R. Quigley read a most interesting paper on "The Responsibilities of the Anesthetist." A hearty discussion followed.

Mr. Frank Clark, president of the Board of Health, presented a resolution from the Woman's Club. After the discussion an invitation was extended to Dr. John McMillen, surgeon, United States Public Health Service, to come in Maysville and conduct an investigation to determine the prevalence of trachoma.

more interesting and instructive, and physicians ought to avail themselves of this opportunity. The Academy extends a hearty welcome to all physicians in the county.

attendance at Sunday school has been promised. This service begins at 9:30 a. m. To have 200 present will require 50 visitors. Let every member of the church attend Sunday school this one day, anyway. Epworth League at first Sunday's offering will be taken.

It is also the meeting for memory

the Easter cantata already announced.
"The Coming King," tells the Easter story in a beautiful and impres-lows next week. Everybody invited.

Easter sermon at 7:15 will be on "Baptism, a Symbol of Death and
